Any such Change of Scope shall be made in accordance with the provisions of this Article 16 and the costs thereof shall be expended by the Concessionaire and reimbursed to it by the Government in accordance with Clause 16.3.

16.1.2 If the Concessionaire determines at any time that a Change of Scope is necessary for providing safer and improved services to the Users, it shall by notice in writing require the Government to consider such Change of Scope. The Government shall, within 15 (fifteen) days of receipt of such notice, either accept such Change of Scope with modifications, if any, and initiate proceedings therefor in accordance with this Article 16 or inform the Concessionaire in writing of its reasons for not accepting such Change of Scope.

ARTICLE 41
CHANGE IN LAW*41.1 Increase in costs

If as a result of Change in Law, the Concessionaire suffers an increase in costs or reduction in net after-tax return or other financial burden, the aggregate financial effect of which exceeds the higher of Rs. 1 crore (Rupees one crore) and 0.5% (zero point five percent) of the Realisable Fee in any Accounting Year, the Concessionaire may so notify the Government and propose amendments to this Agreement so as to place the Concessionaire in the same financial position as it would have enjoyed had there been no such Change in Law resulting in the cost increase, reduction in return or other financial burden as aforesaid. Upon notice by the Concessionaire, the Parties shall meet, as soon as reasonably practicable but no later than 30 (thirty) days from the date of notice, and either agree on amendments to this Agreement or on any other mutually agreed arrangement.

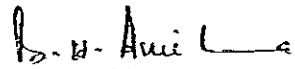

Provided that if no agreement is reached within 90 (ninety) days of the aforesaid notice, the Concessionaire may by notice require the Government to pay an amount that would place the Concessionaire in the same financial position that it would have enjoyed had there been no such Change in Law, and within 15 (fifteen) days of receipt of such notice, along with particulars thereof, the Government shall pay the amount specified therein; provided that if the Government shall dispute such claim of the Concessionaire, the same shall be settled in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure. For the avoidance of doubt, it is agreed that this Clause 41.1 shall be restricted to changes in law directly affecting the Concessionaire's costs of performing its obligations under this Agreement.

41.2 Reduction in costs

If as a result of Change in Law, the Concessionaire benefits from a reduction in costs or increase in net after-tax return or other financial gains, the aggregate financial effect of which exceeds the higher of Rs. 1 crore (Rupees one crore) and 0.5% (zero point five percent) of the Realisable Fee in any Accounting Year, the Government may so notify the Concessionaire and propose amendments to this Agreement so as to place the Concessionaire in the same financial position as it would have enjoyed had there been no such Change in Law resulting in the decreased costs, increase in return or other financial gains as aforesaid. Upon notice by the Government, the Parties shall meet, as soon as reasonably practicable but no later than 30 (thirty) days from the date of notice, and either agree on such amendments to this Agreement or on any other mutually agreed arrangement.

Provided that if no agreement is reached within 90 (ninety) days of the aforesaid notice, the Government may by notice require the Concessionaire to pay an amount that would place the Concessionaire in the same financial position that it would have enjoyed had there been no such Change in Law, and within 15 (fifteen) days of receipt of such notice, along with particulars thereof, the Concessionaire shall pay the amount specified therein to the Government; provided that if the Concessionaire shall dispute such claim of the Government, the same shall be settled in accordance with the Dispute Resolution Procedure. For the avoidance of doubt, it is agreed that this Clause 41.2 shall be restricted to changes in law directly affecting the Concessionaire's costs of performing its obligations under this Agreement.

41.3 Protection of NPV

Pursuant to the provisions of Clauses 41.1 and 41.2 and for the purposes of placing the Concessionaire in the same financial position as it would have enjoyed had there been no Change in Law affecting the costs, returns or other financial burden or gains, the Parties shall rely on the Financial Model to establish a net present value (the "NPV") of the net cash flow and make necessary adjustments in costs, revenues, compensation or other relevant parameters, as the case may be, to procure that the NPV of the net cash flow is the same as it would have been if no Change in Law had occurred.

41.4 Restriction on cash compensation

KRDCL/PWP&IWTD shall bear cost in this regard. However, Concessionaire shall proactively be involved for all related activities.

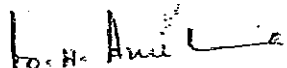

16 Landscaping

The finished road facility shall exhibit adequate landscaping of aesthetically pleasing view. All the borrow areas shall be properly dressed maintaining drain ability outward from the road facility. The side slopes shall be provided with Turfing. The islands near the junction shall be suitably landscaped in discussion with IE/KRDCL/PWP&IWTD.

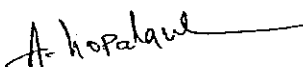

17 Rain Water Harvesting

Rain water harvesting should be provided and should be linked to restore the lakes. The basic principle of rain water harvesting shall include collect and store rainwater; recharge the aquifer and use the ground as storage. Catchment shall be studied and established to plan, design and implement rain water harvesting systems. The components of a rainwater harvesting system shall include Catchment; Conveyance; Filtration; Storage; and Recharge. Paved areas which are clean can be considered as part of catchment. Unpaved areas could be reserved to ensure increase in soil moisture or to recharge groundwater. Conveyance system shall include rain water gutters and down pipes which move the rain water from the catchment to the filtration system. The gutters shall be sloped in the direction of storage or recharge. Filtration systems shall be provided to remove organic material, silt and other debris. They shall be designed with gravel and sand. Rain water passes through the filter and is cleaned considerably for storage. Storage can be done in many ways. HDPE tanks could be used to collect and store water. Underground open or closed sumps could also be used. These take the rainwater and allow it to go into the shallow aquifer or the deeper aquifer at fairly rapid rates. These can be recharge pits or recharge wells. Storm water drains are conveyance systems for larger catchments and are excellent places to harvest storm water. Recharge wells can be placed inside the storm water drains or immediately adjacent to them in series to ensure maximum recharge. Landscaped areas and berms capture water and soak it into the soil, increasing soil moisture and enabling plants to thrive. The aim of rain water harvesting shall be to incorporate in the project the concept of 'water smart' or 'water positive' so that this could contribute to sustainable development.

5 Pavement DesignDesign Methods and Design Parameters

Pavement shall be designed as per the IRC method or the AASHTO method or any other international method approved by IE and KRDCL/PWP & IWTD.

For the present project road pavement is designed as per IRC method based on the following parameters.

- a) Design Traffic in MSA
- b) Design Life in years
- c) Design CBR value

Design Traffic in MSA

To obtain a realistic estimate of design traffic, due consideration should be given to the existing traffic or that of anticipated traffic based on possible changes in the road network and the probable growth of traffic and design life.

For the purpose of pavement structural design, only the number of commercial vehicles of gross vehicle weight of three tonnes or more and their axle-loading is considered.

Traffic Forecast- The present traffic data as collected from classified traffic volume count survey carried out for 7 consecutive days in both directions along the project road stretch was analysed and an Average Daily Traffic (ADT) was computed. The ADT as estimated was converted to Annual Average Daily Traffic (AADT) applying the seasonal factor as applicable to the area.

The results of the classified traffic volume count survey analysis are used to determine diverted traffic, through traffic and cumulative number of Million Standard Axles (MSA) for pavement design.

Growth Rate- The annual traffic growth rates are computed for different modes of transport based on the past trends of traffic growth and elasticity of demand / economic growth in the project area.

Design Traffic in MSA- The Design Traffic in terms of cumulative number of Million Standard Axles (MSA) is estimated as per IRC standard, from AADT applying the annual traffic growth rates as computed for different modes of transport and Vehicle Damage Factor (VDF) as determined through Axle Load Survey.

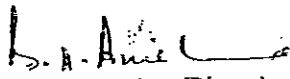

Design Life of the Project Road

The design life is defined in terms of the cumulative number of standard axles that can be carried before strengthening of the pavement is required.

As per IRC standard for State Highways-

Flexible Pavement should be designed for a life of 30 years (30 years for non-bituminous layers and 5 year for bituminous layers)

Design Sub-grade CBR value

The entire stretch along the project stretch has existing sub grade CBR values varying from 0.5 % to 6.5 %, which is very low. The samples collected from the area in the vicinity of the project road showed that the borrow material available along the road generally has soaked CBR value more than 7 %. Hence the pavement for the project road has been designed adopting CBR value of sub grade as 10.0%.

Flexible Pavement Design

The pavement investigation has showed inadequate crust thickness, failure and distress of major stretches along the existing project road. Hence the option of reconstruction of the entire stretch of the project road is proposed.

The Pavement composition and thickness of various layers of pavement shall not be less than those required as per IRC 37 for minimum design traffic of 11.33 msa and minimum design sub grade CBR value of 10.0 %. The minimum pavement composition and thickness of various layers for the above criteria is as given below with total thickness of 565 mm over 500 mm, Sub grade of minimum CBR value of 7.0%.

40 mm BC

50 mm DBM

50 mm BM

+225 mm WMM

200 mm GSB

The composition of pavement layers of the paved shoulders shall not be lower than the adjacent flexible pavement of the mainline Project Road.

To ensure internal drainage of the pavement structure, the granular sub-base layer/filter layer functioning as drainage layer (GSB/WMM) shall extend to full width across the shoulders on the embankment to the side drain.

Modified bituminous binder conforming to IRC-SP-53 should be used in the wearing course.

The finished pavement profile for the total project length shall be designed so that the bottom level of the sub grade always remains above the highest flood level (HFL) level of the sub grade and in any case shall not be lower than as given in the alignment plan and profile. Other minimum requirements of profile, both longitudinal and cross shall be provided as given below-

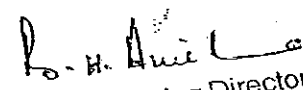

Cross Profile: Camber of 2.5% minimum/ super elevation as per geometric design.

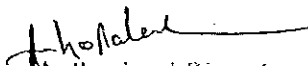

Longitudinal Profile: Vertical curves as per geometric design, straight length between two curves -- minimum 30m.

6 Drainage System

- 6.2 An effective surface and sub-surface drainage system of pavement structure shall be designed as stipulated in IRC:SP:42:1994 and IRC:50:1999.
- 6.3 An effective drainage system shall also be planned and designed for the drainage of medians, interchanges, intersections/junctions, underpasses, toll plazas, Wayside Amenities - Service Area, areas, Bus Bays and other highway features ensuring that there shall be no pooling of water at any time on the Project Road.
- 6.4 Storm water should be directed away from the bridge deck by providing kerb and gutter on the approaches for a minimum distance of 50 m beyond the bridge and carried by a chute to the roadside channel in order to avoid embankment erosion.

- 6.5 In rural stretches of the Project Road, roadside channels (flat bottomed) shall intercept and remove surface run-off from the highway ROW and the adjacent areas and will be drained to the nearest available natural watercourse. These shall have adequate capacity for the design run-off and be located and shaped to avoid creating traffic hazard and erosion of soil.
- 6.6 Concrete lined / masonry drains under footpath in urban stretches shall be located on both side of the Project Road. The capacity of these drains shall be sufficient to carry surface run-off of drainage area of highway ROW.
- 6.7 Drainage channels and pipe shall be installed at crossings with service pipes and utilities ensuring that conflicts do not occur.

Test Procedure:

The following test procedure shall be adopted for the test:

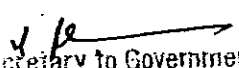

- 1) Check that the installation and operation of the equipment is in order and meets the requirements prescribed in its operational manual. - 2) The instrument shall be calibrated prior to its use for measurement as prescribed in its operational manual.
- 3) The operators shall familiarize themselves with the 5th wheel bump integrator & other equipment associated with its operation using its Test Mode before commencing a survey.
- 4) Generally a speed varying between 30 km/hour-40 km/hour shall be maintained during measurements. The readings shall be taken for each carriageway independently.
- 5) The equipment shall run on a lane in both the directions once and the average of two values taken for its roughness index.
- 6) Pavement unevenness/roughness of 3/4 lane carriageway shall be obtained from the average of the values of the 3/4 lanes recorded.
- 7) The roughness index value is obtained by using the internationally accepted software associated with the equipment from the measured Bumps.
- 8) All data shall be properly recorded with appropriate referencing and stored in a prescribed manner as in the operational manual.
- 9) The roughness measurements shall be properly calibrated using the procedure recommended in the World Bank Technical Publication No. 46.

Annex -III
(Schedule-I)
LOAD TESTING OF A BRIDGE SUPERSTRUCTURE

The load test shall be carried out to check and establish the serviceability and working strength of the superstructure.

1.0 Test Load

The "Test Load" is the equivalent static load equal to the impacted working design Live Load (applied in addition to all dead loads) placed for maximum effect (bending moment, shear, deflection, etc. as the case may be) and applied either through an appropriate test loading truck or through loading platforms resting on tyre-contact area plates simulating the actual areas of wheels.

2.0 Load Application and Testing Procedure

- I. Fix deflection gauges (supported on unyielding supports) under the superstructure, just touching its soffit, at the pre-marked critical 'points'.
- II. Apply the test load in five equal increments (including the weight of platforms of trucks in the first increment), allowing about two hours in between completion of one load increment and commencement of the next. About an hour after completing a load increment, note the deflections and any crack patterns together with maximum crack widths.
- III. After measuring the deflections, etc, one hour after applying the fifth increment, i.e. the final load increment, keep the test load maintained for about 24 hours and again measure the deflections and crack widths (if any).
- IV. Remove the test load in five equal decrements, allowing about two hours in-between completion of one load decrement and commencement of the next. Note the deflections and crack widths (if any) at the end of each load decrement.
- V. Note the deflection and crack widths (if any) 24 hours after removal of the test load in order to see whether the recovery is complete or there is any residual deflection, etc).

3.0 Acceptance Criteria

- I. Increase and decrease in deflections at a point shall follow a linear relation, with actual deflections not exceeding the theoretically estimated ones by more than 10%;
- II. The maximum crack width in reinforced concrete shall not exceed 0.25 mm to 0.30 mm (but no cracks in case of Prestressed concrete);
- III. The deflections at the end of the 24 hours of maintaining the test load shall not exceed the corresponding values at the start of this 24 hour period by 5% and
- IV. The residual deflection at any point 24 hours after complete unloading shall not exceed 10% of the maximum observed deflection at that point (i.e. recovery: 90% or more);

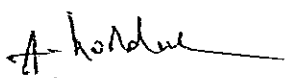

4.0 Observation

The cracks in reinforced concrete shall close upon removal of test load but may not completely disappear.

TRAFFIC SAMPLING

1 Traffic sampling

The KRDCL/PWP&IWTD may, in its discretion and at its own cost, undertake traffic sampling, pursuant to Clause 22.3, in order to determine the actual traffic on the Project Road. Such traffic sampling shall be undertaken through the Independent Engineer in the manner set forth below.

2 Manual traffic count

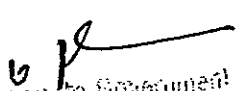

The Independent Engineer shall employ the required number of enumerators who shall count, classify and record all the vehicles as they pass by, and divide the survey into fixed time periods. The count stations shall be located near the Toll Plaza[s] on a straight section of the road with good visibility. The survey shall be conducted continuously for a minimum of 24 (twenty four) hours and maximum of 7 (seven) days at a time. The count period shall be 15 (fifteen) minutes with results summarized hourly.

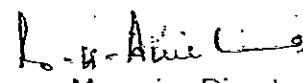

3 Automatic traffic count

For automatic traffic count to be conducted on intermittent (non-continuous) basis, the Independent Engineer shall use suitable and standardized equipment to classify and record the range of vehicles passing through the Toll Plaza[s]. For this purpose, the counter shall be checked with at least 100 (one hundred) vehicles, including all major vehicle types, over a range of speeds to ensure that all vehicles are being counted and classified correctly.

4 Variation between manual and automatic count

Average Daily Traffic (ADT) for each type of vehicle shall be determined separately by the aforesaid two methods and in the event that the number of vehicles in any category, as counted by the manual method, varies by more than 1% (one per cent) of the number of such vehicles as counted by the automatic method, the manual and automatic count of such category of vehicles shall be repeated, and in the event of any discrepancy between the two counts in the second enumeration, the average thereof shall be deemed to be the actual traffic. For the avoidance of doubt, it is expressly agreed that the KRDCL/PWP&IWTD may, in consultation with the Concessionaire, adopt modified or alternative processes of traffic sampling for improving the reliability of such sampling.

- 5 For the purpose of traffic sampling, the Concessionaire shall procure a portable type automatic traffic count-cum-classifier and provide it to the Independent Engineer. The traffic count - cum-classifier shall be light weight and portable with weather resistant casing. The system shall be capable of detecting and recording all types of vehicles plying on the Highway and of classifying any other vehicle category as per user needs. The vehicle classification shall be user selectable based on length of vehicle and number of axles. It would have the following main components:

Sensor - combination of piezo electric sensor and inductive loops. The sensor shall be portable as well as permanent so that either of these could be used as per the needs.

Electronic - the logic unit shall be micro processor based and programmable through a key board. It shall have legible electronic display with requisite number of entry ports and exit to communication system. The vehicle counting/classification interval shall be programmable from one minute to 1440 min. (24 hours). The system shall count and classify vehicle by each lane.

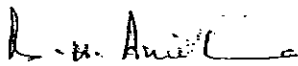

Data Collection - The system shall be capable of recording for later analysis on an individual vehicle basis time, date, speed, direction, lane, number of axles, axles spacing and site identification. The system should be able to record and store vehicle data for a period of at least two weeks.

Data Retrieval - The system shall have the capability of data retrieval through removable CD, data cartridge, direct data transfer through a serial link to a portable computer and telemetry transmission via telephone link by modem.

Software - The system shall have software and manuals to analyse the data from output of vehicle count, classification speed and head-way. It should have capability of graphic/tabular representation of analysis data.

Before the use of portable automatic traffic counter cum classifier, it shall be validated and calibrated through sample counts to establish the reliability and acceptability of Automatic Traffic Counter-cum-Classifer both by Concessionaire and the Independent Engineer.

In case of automatic traffic count, the sampling shall be done at intervals of 15 days by continuous 24 hrs counting for three days. If no abnormal trends are observed in three days counting at the frequency of 15 days, the frequency would be increased to 1 month after a period of one year. The sensor/loops shall be permanently installed to capture the traffic on all the approaching lanes, in accordance with the instructions of the supplier. They shall be located away from the toll plaza transitions taking care that no diversion of traffic is possible in between. The portable logic unit shall be plugged to these sensors whenever counting is to be done. Portable sensor can be utilised for traffic counting at any other location as per the need.

7.2 In addition to the annual revision effected under Rule 9(1), the applicable basic toll rates shall be adjusted and revised annually on April 1 of each year to reflect the variation in WPI occurring between January 1, 2007 and January 1 of the year in which such revision is undertaken. The revision for each Project Road, bypass, bridge, ROB and RUB shall be undertaken as follows:

- (a) On the 1st April immediately preceding the completion of a Project Road, bypass, bridge, ROB or RUB, as the case may be, (the "date of revision"), the basic toll rates, as applicable under Rule 9(1) shall be adjusted and revised for such Project Road, bypass, bridge, ROB or RUB, as the case may be, to reflect the variation in WPI occurring between January 1, 2007 and January 1 immediately preceding the date of revision hereunder. The formula for determining the basic toll charge payable by a user of such Project Road, bypass, bridge, ROB or RUB as the case may be, (the "basic toll charge") shall be as follows:

For a Project Road that is commissioned on April 1, 2008, the toll charge shall, assuming an inflation of (say) 5 percent (five per cent) in WPI between January 1, 2007 and January 1, 2008, be a sum of (i) the basic toll rate as on April 1, 2007 i.e. 51.5 paise; and (ii) inflation of 5 percent (five percent) on 50 paise, i.e. 2.5 paise.
