23. That the Developer (s) shall develop the project in terms of agreed working plans and in accordance with the approvals and sanctions to be granted by the concerned authorities and to meet all the requirements thereof. However, The Developer (s) would be solely liable for any penal or financial charges that may be levied during the construction phase of the project due to infraction of any law, rules and byelaws by the Developer(s).
24. That an Independent agency shall be selected and appointed by the Parishad, according to existing guidelines, who shall supervise the development work and shall keep a check on the quality control of the work being executed at site from time to time.
25. That it shall be the responsibility of the developer to obtain all permissions and no objections which may be required relating to the Scheme, including environmental clearances, at its own cost.
26. That the Developer shall also be liable to abide by all the terms and conditions which may be laid down by various authorities including the environmental authorities. Similarly, the Developer shall be bound to abide by all the directions being given by the Parishad and the Government orders issued from time to time in letter and spirit.
27. That in lieu of the administrative work which has been done by the Parishad, the second party shall pay a sum equivalent to 2 % of the total cost of the project as specified in the DPR as administrative charges. This amount shall be deducted by the Parishad on or before the payments of the amounts of state grant and central grant which is payable to the developer.

28. That the Developer/Land Owner's shall not execute any sale deed or shall not handover the possession of residential/non residential area without obtaining N.O.C from the Parishad.
29. That it shall be the responsibility of the Land owner and the Developer to get the project registered with Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA) and to comply with all formalities and regulations relating thereto. It is clarified that the role of the Third Party/ Parishad is to ensure and monitor the implementation of scheme under the PMAY (U) and to ensure that the subsidy which has been paid by and on behalf of the Central Government, the State Government is not misused. Accordingly, all liabilities and responsibilities under the RERA Act shall be of the land owner and the developer as per RERA Act. The Parishad would not be liable or responsible for payment of any compensation, damages or other liabilities under the RERA Act or to the Purchasers. However, in case under any eventuality, the Parishad is impleaded as a party in any litigation / complaint or is made to bear any liability, on account of the acts of omission and commission on the part of the land owner/ developer, or on account of defect or deficiencies in the houses or delay etc, then in such an eventuality the land owner/ developer shall duly indemnify the Parishad for all losses and expenses, including legal costs, which may be incurred by the Parishad.

30. That all direct and indirect taxes or charges including charges payable to appropriate Government (s) and/ or to the local authority shall be borne by the developer. The developer shall be entitled to any remissions in the Central or State Government taxes or charges, subject to compliance of the norms and the guidelines prescribed under the scheme (s).
31. That the land owners shall be paid the agreed cost of the land by the Developer. It is clarified that it shall be the sole responsibility of only the Developer to pay all amounts payable to the land Owner and under no circumstances the Third party shall be held liable on this count.

That the Developer will pay 3.676 % of the Residential sale consideration to the land owner towards his share of the project subject to the maximum of Rs.2.40 Crores. The entire amount will be paid by the developer from the escrow account of the project.

Cheque No/RTGS-	Dated	Amount	Bank

000127	31-03-2023	30,00,000/-	Punjab and Sindh Bank
Total		2,40,00,000/-	All Cheque Branch Anand Vihar New Delhi

As mention on point 31 if the above Cheque's do not get mature on due date, that is payment is on the given date of all above cheque's, then the deal between developers and land owner will automatically get cancel, also developers will not make any claim on land owner and advance will be for forfeited by land owner.

32. That in case the developer fails to execute the work at site as per the Uttarakhand Housing Policy Rules and PMAY (U) and the norms and the approved plans laid down, all the securities being furnished by the land owner and the developer by way of mortgage and performance bank guarantee shall be forfeited. In such an eventuality the developer and land owner will not be entitled to any benefit under the scheme and neither would they be entitled to the subsidy amounts.

33. That in case at any stage, it is found by the Parishad that the development of the project and the constructions being made by the Developer are not in a workman like manner or in accordance with the approved lay out or in accordance with the directions given by the Parishad from time to time or the project is being delayed, or any provisions of the PMAY (U) or the Uttarakhand Housing Policy are being violated then at the discretion of the Parishad and its sole prerogative, the Parishad

33.1 shall be entitled to take over the said project and get the work completed by Parishad or through any other agency at the cost and risk of the Land owner and the Developer.

33.2 In case, the cost of completing the remaining development and construction at site, exceeds the balance amount realisable by the Developer from the Purchasers, the Land Owner / developer shall jointly and severally be liable to pay the differential amount to the Parishad along with all other expenses which may have to be incurred by the Parishad for discharging the obligations of the land owner/Developer.

- 33.3 In-case the Parishad is unable to develop the project due to any reasons as the case may be the developer and landowner shall refund the instalment received from the beneficiary and the Grant from the government.
- 33.4 If it is viable the Parishad may sell out the mortgage land and the cost recovered from that and the security etc. jointly getting the funds, will proportionally return the money to the Beneficiary in lieu to the houses constructed in respect to the project.
34. That In-case of default by the Promoter, the Parishad shall have the right to take up the matter suo-motto or on request of the Beneficiary to competent forum for the completion of project.
35. That all dues payable or realisable by the Parishad under this agreement shall be realisable from its Developer/Second Party as arrears of land revenue.
36. That after securing the completion certificate from the Parishad, the Developer, shall execute the sale deed in favour of the each approved eligible allottee. The land owners as well as Developer(s) undertake to convey clear and unencumbered market title in favour of the prospective buyers. For the said purpose Land Owners as well as Developer(s) are bound to execute the Sale/Conveyance deed jointly in favour of prospective buyers.
37. That after execution of all the sale deeds to the allottees and due compliance of the terms of this agreement, the Bank Guarantee and the mortgaged land shall be released in favour of the second party after expiry of period of 1 month.

38. That if during the continuation of this agreement or during the period of construction, any assistance, co-operation or any legal undertaking on behalf of Land Owners is required for the due performance of the obligations contained herein and the smooth and speedy progress of the project, the Land Owners shall assist, co-operate and undertake, as and when required, on the request of the Developer(s) but only within the terms of this agreement.
39. That after taking over possession, if any problem arises from the neighbours of the adjoining lands or any other department or otherwise to secure such possession, the same shall be dealt with by the Developer(s) solely since the Developer(s) had satisfied themselves regarding the possession, boundaries and all relevant factors related to the ownership, possession and control of the Land Owners over the said land after the careful study of all the relevant documents already executed in favour of the Land Owners. However, if at any stage of such problem or dispute, the assistance of the Land Owners is felt necessary, the Land Owner(s) would co-operate with the Promoter(s) at his/their cost and risk.
40. That the Land Owners and Developer hereby represent, confirm and, further, undertake to keep the Parishad and the Purchaser(s), indemnified and harmless against encumbrances, claims and damages which may arise on the part of Land Owners during the entire period of subsistence of this agreement and in such an event the Land Owners and Developer shall make good the losses or damages or any claim or defect in the title within a period of 15 days from the date when such defect is brought to the notice of the Land Owners and Developer.

41. That the Land Owners shall not interfere or obstruct in any manner whatsoever, with the construction, development and completion of the Project till the day of non- default of this agreement.
42. That the Developers shall be entirely liable and responsible for any kind of defects in the project and the units to be constructed and developed as well as delay in the development and construction of the project/units.
43. That the completion and/or occupancy certificate for the project shall be obtained by the developer from the Parishad.
44. That the stamp duty on this agreement has been borne by the developer. In case, any deficiency, in payment of any stamp duty is found at a subsequent stage, then in such an eventuality it is the developer who shall be liable and responsible to bear the deficit amount of stamp duty and consequence thereof.
45. That it shall be the obligation and responsibility of the developer to secure and obtain at their own cost and expense, all statutory permission(s), NOC(s), license(s) for execution and operation of the project. It shall also be their responsibility to pay all fees, penalties or any other civil or criminal liability.

46. That the developer shall also constitute a resident welfare association (RWA) and all expenses relating thereto shall be incurred by them.

47. That until such time the common areas are taken over by the RWA, it shall be the responsibility of the Developer and land owner to maintain the common areas. The Developer is entitled to collect the maintenance as charges prescribed in Housing Policy Rules guidelines/rules/direction from the Uttarakhand Government and Gov. Of India.

48. The Developer agrees and understands that timely delivery of possession of the Units to the allottee(s) and the common areas to the association of allottees or the competent authority, as the case may be, is the essence of the Agreement. The Developer assures and undertakes to hand over possession of the Unit along with ready and complete common areas with all specifications, amenities and facilities of the project at site on time, unless there is delay or failure due to war, flood, drought, fire, cyclone, earthquake or any other calamity caused by nature affecting the regular development of the real estate project ("Force Majeure"). If, however, the completion of the Project is delayed due to the Force Majeure conditions then the Parishad agrees that the Developer shall be entitled to the extension of time for delivery of possession of the Unit, provided that such Force Majeure conditions are of the nature which makes it impossible for the contract to be implemented. The Developer shall give written intimation of such event to the Parishad and confirms that, in the event it becomes impossible for the Promoter to implement the project due to Force Majeure conditions, then any agreement with Beneficiary shall stand terminated and the Promoter shall refund to the Beneficiary the entire amount received by it from the allottees by way of allotment within 45 days from that date. As well as refund the grant received from central/State. The promoter shall intimate the allottee about such termination at least thirty days prior to such termination

49. That the Land Owner and Developer shall have no objection in case of any dispute arises on any matter regarding the project, Parishad shall have the sole jurisdiction and authority to take up the matter in any concerned forum or authority as the Parishad deems fit for resolution of the dispute in a timely manner.

RESOLUTION OF DISPUTE

50. That for resolution of disputes, a committee under the Chairmanship of Additional Housing Commissioner as following: -
- A. Appar Awas Ayukt
  - B. Developer or his/her nominee
  - C. Land owner's or his/her nominee

This committee shall make an effort to resolve the disputes within a period of 1 month. In case the disputes are not resolved, then in such an eventuality the disputes shall be referred to Arbitrator appointed mutually by the parties and provision of Arbitration and conciliation Act shall be applicable. The seat of Arbitrator shall be at Dehradun and proceedings of Arbitration and Award shall be in English Language. The expanses and fees of Arbitrator proceedings and fee of the Arbitrator shall be borne equally by the parties.

51. In the event parties hereto hereafter consider it necessary or appropriate to alter, amend, substitute or override any terms of this agreement, they shall record such terms in writing as addendum hereto, and no such terms shall be binding between the parties until and unless they are reduced in writing and signed by the each of the parties herein.

52. That the mutual notices shall be served upon the parties on their respective address given by registered mail.
