Subject: Acceptance of Existing Factory Building Plans and Stability Certificate under section-6 of the Factories Act, 1948 and Punjab Factories Rules 1952.

The Existing building plans and Stability Certificate of HMEL Organic Private Limitedtd HMEL Organics Private Limited, Vill Phullokhari, Teh. Talwandi Sabo, District Bathinda - 151301 (PB),have been found correct in accordance with the provisions of the Factories Act, 1948 and Punjab Factory Rules,1952.Building Plan and Stability Certificate got accepted under Factories Act, 1948 and rules made there under subject to the following conditions:-

- 1.Amended Factory Building Plans shall be submitted in case of any change in area, building, plant & machinery and manufacturing process.
- 2.Cess has been deposited under The Building & Other Construction Workers' Welfare Cess Act, 1996. However, the applicant shall deposit the difference of amount, if any, found at any point of time.
- 3.Stability Certificate in Form No. 1F shall be valid as per the provisions laid down in Rule 4 of Punjab Factory Rules, 1952.
4. If approval of Building Plans has not been obtained by the applicant from competent authority under the building by-laws i.e. local authority for areas within M.C Limit and Labour Department/HUD Department for areas outside M.C Limit, then the applicant shall be bound to get the building plans approved by competent authority as per the building by-laws within the period of six months.
5. It is again clarified, this approval is only w.r.t the provisions of Factories Act, 1948 and rules made thereunder. This may not be considered an approval/waiver of approval of building plan under the building by-laws as explained in above para. The responsibility of approval of building plan lies entirely on the applicant, in case at the time of approval of this plan under the building by-laws any changes are made w.r.t to ventilation, skylight, breathing space, layout of machinery, provisions of canteen, occupational health center etc. then the applicant will have to submit revised plans under the Factories Act, 1948.
